

Nomination of Kenichi Zenimura for the Buck O'Neil Lifetime Achievement Award

Letter References:

---

<sup>1</sup> "Baseball Czar K. Zenimura Gives Thanks and Regards," Gila News Courier, August 1, 1945, Pg. 6

<sup>2</sup> SABR Asian Baseball Committee, Japanese Baseball Page, <http://asianbb.sabr.org>

<sup>3</sup> "Big Leaguers Boot One in Japan, Herbert Hunter Takes Major League All-Stars to Japan," Fresno Bee, December 14, 1922, pg. 9

<sup>4</sup> David King, "Finally Getting His Due," San Antonio Express-News, July 30, 2006, Pg. 01C

<sup>5</sup> "Fresno's Ken Zenimura, Dean of Nisei Baseball In US, Recalls Colorful Past," Fresno Bee, May 20, 1962, pg. B-9

<sup>6</sup> "New Ball Park at Livingston opened, Japanese defeated," The Fresno Bee, May 1, 1923, pg. 12

<sup>7</sup> "Editorial: Huge Signs Disappeared," Gila News Courier, September 25, 1943, Pg. 6

<sup>8</sup> ibid.

<sup>9</sup> "Porterville Would Bar Japanese," Fresno Bee, February 26, 1924, pg. 10

<sup>10</sup> "Bees Wallop Japanese 15-2," Fresno Bee, March 31, 1924, pg. 4

<sup>11</sup> Documentary: Diamonds in the Rough: The Legacy of Japanese-American Baseball, Chip Taylor Productions, 1998

<sup>12</sup> "Fourth of July Fete is Planned," Fresno Bee, June 23, 1936, pg. 5B

<sup>13</sup> "A Field In The Desert That Felt Like Home, An Unlikely Hero Sustained Hope For Japanese-Americans Interned In World War II," Sports Illustrated, November 16, 1998, Pgs. 48-51

<sup>14</sup> Tetsuo Furokawa, "When Gila Fought Heart Mountain," National Japanese American Historical Society, Nikkei Heritage, Sports 2006, Pg. 11

<sup>15</sup> Kerry Yo Nakagawa. Through a Diamond: 100 Years of Japanese American Baseball, (San Francisco: Rudi Publishing, 2001), foreword.